

Funding Event, Startups and Investors

In this section, you will learn about the funding events which occur on a daily basis in the Indian Startup Markets. The image below represents how a startup funding lifecycle usually plays. In each funding round, different investors get involved with different amounts depending on their conviction of the startup, sector, portfolio and other factors.

With the help of your analysis, we are gaining an understanding of all funding events occurring with deeper information about the startup, investors and the funding events. This database will help us do more business with the startups across different sectors – e.g. EdTech, Fintech, Consumer Tech and so on.

Code of Conduct during the Internship

1. When in doubt, summarize the doubt in a paragraph and store it as a file in your computer or an excel sheet
2. Do not submit information if you are unclear about what it means. Accuracy outweighs ambiguous information for us
3. In the daily/weekly calls, ask all your doubts to your mentor.
